

Udall Undergraduate Scholarship

- Purpose
 - The purpose of the Udall Undergraduate Scholarship is to pay tribute to Morris and Stewart Udall, whose work had a significant impact on the preservation of American Indian culture. The scholarship is worth up to $5,000 towards the educational expenses of students working towards further preservation of the American Indian people, land, or culture.
- Eligibility Requirements
 - Students must be sophomore or junior-level college student at a two-year or four-year accredited institution of higher education in the United States
 - Students must be pursuing a bachelor's or associate's degree full time during the awarded academic year; and
 - Students must be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or U.S. permanent resident.
- Application Process
 - To apply for the Udall Undergraduate Scholarship students must first contact the campus representative, Dr. Todd Fraley, to start the application process.
 - Students can expect the following requirements on the application:
 - An 11-question application
 - An 800-word essay on a speech, legislative act, book, or public policy statement by either Morris K. Udall or Stewart L. Udall and its impact on your interests and goals
 - Transcripts for all college coursework
 - Three letters of recommendation that speak to your leadership, public service and academic achievements.
 - The application deadline is typically early March.
- Selection Process
 - Applications are reviewed and recipients will be notified late April.
- Campus Contact
 - To apply, contact ECU Faculty Representative, Dr. Todd Fraley at fraleyt@ecu.edu
- Website Link
 - For more information, please visit <http://www.udall.gov/Default.aspx>